

Research Fellows Application Form

In order to support its commitment to lifelong learning, the Webster University Library is pleased to offer the Research Fellows Program. Begun in 1999, the program provides "main-campus" library resources and services to Research Fellows of Webster University worldwide.

Description of the program: available at <http://library.webster.edu/services/resfellow.html>.

Questions about the program: contact Ellen Eliceiri, Head of Reference Desk Support/Curator of Special Collections, at 314.968.6950 or via email at eliceiri@webster.edu.

Application Procedures for the Research Fellows Program

- Eligibility: Alumni of Webster University in good standing may apply.
- Fee: $300/year. This fee includes access to the databases leased by the Library as well as the services described at <http://library.webster.edu/services/resfellow.html>. The fee does not include other costs incurred by participants, such as Internet service provider fees, software acquisition, etc.
- Application Procedure:
 1. Request an application from the Webster University Library Reference Desk (314-968-6950) or complete the online form that follows.
 2. Send a copy of the form with a check or money order for $300 made payable to the Webster University Library to:

Webster University Library
Attn: Ellen Eliceiri
470 E. Lockwood Avenue
St. Louis, MO 63119

Following approval of your application and payment to the library, your membership will be processed and you will receive notice when your access has been activated.

You will receive an identification number (which in some cases may be your previous university ID number) that you will need to use the databases and services offered through the program.

If you have any technical questions about access, please contact Rick Kaeser at 314-968-5994 or toll free: 1-800-985-4279 or via e-mail at docdel@webster.edu.

Renewal notices will be sent out a month before your membership expires.

WARNING CONCERNING USE RESTRICTIONS

I agree to comply with this restriction. (Failure to check this box will cancel your request.) The educational licenses of the Library's database vendors restrict usage of their databases to current Webster faculty, staff, and students (including Research Fellows). Use of these databases is restricted for your own personal use. Your personal University ID may not be shared with others. This institution reserves the right to revoke Research Fellows privileges and refund the pro-rated fee if, in its judgment, compliance is not met.
